6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

Jump to question:

The purpose of this section is to give you an opportunity to tell us and your community about the activities you have engaged in to address community needs by outlining key services provided, and the local value and impact of those services. Please report on activities that occurred in Fiscal Year 2020. Responses may be shared with Congress or the public. Grantees are required to post a copy of this report (Section 6 only) to their website no later than ten (10) days after the submission of the report to CPB. CPB recommends placing the report in an "About" or similar section on your website. This section had previously been optional. Response to this section of the SAS is now mandatory.

Joint licensee Grantees that have filed a 2020 Local Content and Services Report as part of meeting the requirement for TV CSG funding may state they have done so in the corresponding questions below, so long as all of the questions below were addressed as they relate to radio operations in such report. You must include the date the report was submitted to CPB along with the TV Grantee ID under which it was submitted.

Jump to question:

1. Describe your overall goals and approach to address identified community issues, needs, and interests through your station's vital local services, such as multiplatform long and short-form content, digital and in-person engagement, education services, community information, partnership support, and other activities, and audiences you reached or new audiences you engaged.

In 2020, classical music station KBAQ in Phoenix responded to the Covid-19 pandemic by concentrating on our primary objective of providing classical music presented by local hosts. KBAQ became Phoenix's refuge from the news and loud voices. If anecdotal each, a great number of letters and emails arrived lauding the station for preserving peace and sanity. With in-person engagement not possible in 2020, we continued our Web- and email-based promotions inviting listeners to help choose the music. We also added a daily feature, the Cabin Fever reliever, for helping those who have felt increasingly shut-in escape in their minds to far-away places. In 2020, we continued to air locally recorded performances, some being community and college ensembles and others being national and international artists.

6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

Jump to question:

2. Describe key initiatives and the variety of partners with whom you collaborated, including other public media outlets, community nonprofits, government agencies, educational institutions, the business community, teachers and parents, etc. This will illustrate the many ways you're connected across the community and engaged with other important organizations in the area.

Many of our outreach efforts are in partnership with co-licensee Arizona State University through the audio production wing of its PBS member station, KAET. In 2020, we were not able to co-produce live-hosted events in the community, but we brought new and not-yet-aired local performances from the Phoenix Symphony along with recent performances from the Phoenix Chorale, Arizona Musicfest Orchestra, Arizona Bach Festival, and others. Annually, KBAQ participates in the worldwide festivities of airing the New Year's Day concerts from Vienna.

6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

Jump to question:

3. What impact did your key initiatives and partnerships have in your community? Describe any known measurable impact, such as increased awareness, learning or understanding about particular issues. Describe indicators of success, such as connecting people to needed resources or strengthening conversational ties across diverse neighborhoods. Did a partner see an increase in requests for related resources? Please include direct feedback from a partner(s) or from a person(s) served.

KBAQ continues being the primary source of information about culture and the arts in Metropolitan Phoenix, and chiefly from the same hosts bringing the music to air. We expect to resume in-studio Heart of the Arts interviews in which KBAQ's Sterling Beeaff talks with local arts leaders and visiting artists all throughout the arts season. We continue to air, one to three nights per week, recently recorded concerts from diverse visiting ensembles. Among them, Catalyst String Quartet, Mill Avenue Chamber Players, American String Quartet, Takacs Quartet, Faure Quartet, Phoenix Children's Chorus, Arizona Opera, True Concord Voices, and Orchestra of Tucson.

6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

Jump to question:

4. Please describe any efforts (e.g. programming, production, engagement activities) you have made to investigate and/or meet the needs of minority and other diverse audiences (including, but not limited to, new immigrants, people for whom English is a second language and illiterate adults) during Fiscal Year 2020, and any plans you have made to meet the needs of these audiences during Fiscal Year 2021. If you regularly broadcast in a language other than English, please note the language broadcast.

KBAQ's engagement with diverse audiences in 2020 has included presenting a special on black composers, highlighting famous and lesser-known composer (Quincy Jones, Terence Blanchard, Mervyn Warren), for Black History Month; spotlighting black composers throughout the day for Martin Luther King, Jr Day; presenting a film music special, Women of the Big Screen, featuring female film composers, for Women's History Month; incorporating an overall more diverse playlist of composers, including the addition of female composers who are underrepresented on many classical stations. From Hildegard von Bingen to Jennifer Higdon, these women represent centuries of often overlooked classical works. In addition to these efforts, in 2021, we will honor Hispanic heritage by highlighting the contributions of Hispanic and Latino classical artists.

6.1 Telling Public Radio's Story

Jump to question:

5. Please assess the impact that your CPB funding had on your ability to serve your community. What were you able to do with your grant that you wouldn't be able to do if you didn't receive it?

Without CPB funding, KBAQ would not be able to sustain the outreach and community engagement that we need to do to serve the arts community in the Greater Phoenix area.
